endicia® Delivers

With over 25 years of experience in the postal industry and nearly $4 billion in postage printed, Endicia is the leading Internet Postage service provider. Endicia lets users print postage with just a computer, printer, and an Internet connection. Integrated into more than 90 applications, Endicia's PC and Mac applications allow users to print postage and shipping labels for all domestic and International mail classes that can be purchased at the Post Office™ retail counter.

Endicia's PictureItPostage™ service allows businesses and individuals to print customized postage with their logos, images, or pictures. In 2009, La Poste, the French Postal Service, chose Endicia to launch MonTimbrenLigne, allowing small office/home office users to design and print custom postage at no extra cost.

Endicia received the first annual USPS® Quality Supplier Award in 1989, the Industry Star Award in 2004, and the USPS Corporate Business Achievement Award for Outstanding Performance in 2008.
